Orijin is on a mission to prepare every justice-impacted individual for sustainable employment to break the cycle of incarceration.

Tennessee Impact | At a Glance

Partner: Department of Labor and Workforce Development

2021	95	115	7,000+
year partnership launched	number of counties	number of jails served	number of Orijin tablets provided

Second Chance Employer Partnerships

CVS

Serving Knox County, Tennessee

Through the Pioneering Pathways to Employment program, Orijin and CVS will empower justice-impacted individuals with customized education and training for sustainable employment at CVS upon release.

- Incarcerated individuals will access Orijin's Basic Work Skills program, and customized resources, preparing them for employment.
- Job-seekers will undergo a customized application and background check process tailored to justice-impacted individuals.

TLD Logistics Services Inc.

Serving 5 Tennessee Counties

Orijin and TLD Logistics Services are collaborating to accelerate pathways to high-demand and rewarding truck driving careers for justice-impacted individuals.

- Incarcerated learners will take all pre-apprentice coursework on Orijin prior to re-entry, preparing them for a paid apprenticeship program upon release.
- Learners will then prepare for their permit and Commercial Driver's License (CDL), which is required for a career as a full-time truck driver.

Contact: Erica Hulings, Vice President, Operations | Erica.Hulings@orijin.works